Parking transactions dropped sharply as COVID-19 spread and states shut down. In mid-April you started to see parking transactions begin to increase week-over-week.

Beach communities are seeing faster growth than other locations.

Recovery of the large cities has been flatter than smaller cities.