NGEX MINERALS REPORTS Q2 2020 RESULTS

VANCOUVER, August 27, 2020 - NGEX Minerals Ltd. (TSXV: NGEX) (“NGEx Minerals” or the “Company”) is pleased to announce its results for the three and six months ended June 30, 2020.

SECOND QUARTER 2020 HIGHLIGHTS AND OUTLOOK

Business Development Becomes Focal Point

The Company’s main operating objective for the three months ended June 30, 2020 was the continuation of its project generation and business development activities, which are geared towards identifying new projects for potential acquisition. While activity with respect to the Company’s current portfolio of mineral properties in Chile and Argentina are temporarily halted due to both the seasonality of their exploration seasons and COVID-19-related restrictions imposed by the Company’s operating jurisdictions, the Company’s focus has shifted towards identification and assessment of potential investment and acquisition targets globally and across various commodities.

The continuation of project generation initiatives is expected to be a significant focus for the Company going forward, as the Company seeks to leverage the strong ongoing support that it receives from its key shareholders and capitalize on available opportunities.

Wojtek Wodzicki, President and CEO, commented, “While our offices and facilities in both Canada and South America have been largely closed during the second quarter in response to COVID-19, the Company has been making the most of out of the situation in exploring and assessing various business development opportunities. There is definitely a bounty of interesting projects out there, across jurisdictions and commodities, and we have the benefit of being selective to ensure that any acquisitions pursued are complementary to our business and add value to our shareholders. With the continued support from the Lundin Family, our biggest shareholder, we are in an enviable position as we continue to pursue opportune additions to our portfolio of robust exploration assets.”

COVID-19 Response Update

The Company continues to respond to the COVID-19 pandemic within the framework of internal protocols, and local and national health authority requirements and recommendations. The health and safety of the Company’s employees, contractors, visitors, and stakeholders remains NGEx Minerals’ top priority. The Company’s project facilities and offices have implemented travel restrictions, surveillance, monitoring and response plans to reduce the risk of COVID-19 exposure and outbreak, including health screening of personnel when appropriate. All non-critical business travel has also been curtailed. The Company will continue to monitor the situation and is prepared to implement additional changes to minimize any potential impacts of the global outbreak that might emerge at the Company's project site or offices, as necessary.

In response to COVID-19, many governments of varying levels around the world have issued certain public health orders and travel restrictions, including the respective jurisdictions in which Company's headquarters and operating subsidiaries operate. Among other effects, such restrictions impact the Company's movement of people, its access to properties and facilities, and its general ability to conduct business in the normal course. The impacts to the Company to date have not been material, however going forward, they may result in changes to the timing and nature of the Company's operating plans.

As of the date of this news release, the government of Argentina has implemented certain travel restrictions to limit the spread of COVID-19. Per the latest Argentine government policy, any foreigner who is not a resident in Argentina will not be permitted to enter Argentina. In addition, travel restrictions have been imposed by certain provincial authorities on inter-provincial travel within Argentina. In Chile, the government has declared a 90-day state of emergency, which took effect March 19, 2020, and was renewed on June 16, 2020 for an additional 90 days. Effective March 18, 2020, Chile's borders are closed for entry. Chilean citizens and permanent residents are exempted and may still enter Chile at this time. All foreigners and Chileans entering Chile are subject to a mandatory 14-day self-quarantine.

The COVID-19-related health and safety regulations implemented by health officials in the Company's operating jurisdictions continue to evolve, and the Company has employed certain practices and procedures to stay abreast of, and remain adaptable to, the fluid situation. Such practices and procedures include, but are not limited to: analysis of alternate staffing schedules, rotations and accommodation arrangements; development of internal testing and quarantine protocols, including early identification of suitable quarantine locations; and regular dialogue with local government and health officials.

As of the date of this news release, the Company cannot yet determine the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on its financial position, results of operations and cash flows for the year ending December 31, 2020 and beyond. The foregoing notwithstanding, as the Company's business plan is impacted by its ability to obtain financing through global financial markets, it is anticipated that should the COVID-19 pandemic and/or the general depression of financial markets persist, the Company's ability to access financing on favourable terms may be negatively impacted.

As part of its response to the COVID-19 crisis and the resulting global economic instability, the Company has implemented certain cost saving measures, including reductions to discretionary expenditures.

The lower net loss in the current period is generally the result of the decrease in exploration and project investigation costs as a result of the cessation of field activity in the current period due to seasonality of the Company's projects and its COVID-19 response.
