

of people use at least one FinTech app or platform, and 85% use either banking apps or online platforms of people log in and use financial accounts while connected to public Wi-fi hotspots or other open networks “all the time” while a further 22% do so “sometimes”

39% of people do not use a VPN to secure their connection while using financial applications