It's the Sweetest Time of Year! Young and old are invited to test their creative baking and design skills in the Discovery Cube's Annual Science of Gingerbread Competition. We're inviting all family and friends, community groups and corporations to test their holiday hands at building and designing sweet structures!

- New categories for creative competition
- New prizes for winners
- Entries accepted from Nov. 20 - Dec. 4
- Award Ceremony for all participants and winners
