National Organization Recognizes and Promotes the Power of Collective Giving

The Nonprofit Collective Foundation Empowers Nonprofits Across the U.S.

(New York, NY) – The Nonprofit Collective Foundation (NCF), a dynamic, nationally recognized philanthropic organization, is on a mission to empower nonprofit organizations throughout the United States by providing vital, unrestricted grants and essential resources. Through a unique approach, the NCF leverages the generosity of its donors, pooling their contributions to create impactful, unrestricted grants that support nonprofits in their missions.

Nonprofit organizations play a critical role in addressing societal and community challenges, but they often face financial constraints that hinder their growth and impact. The NCF recognizes this challenge and has designed a model that harnesses the power of collective giving to provide meaningful support to nonprofits.

The NCF considers itself an unconventional organization, and is looking to redefine the traditional notion of fundraising, with a unique, online fundraiser slated for October 3, 2023 from 11 a.m. till 12 noon (EST). The event will feature guest speaker Sean Callagy, attorney, entrepreneur, speaker, business and corporate coach, who has spoken for major multi-national companies including Disney, T-Mobile and Bristol Myers Squibb.

Callagy will be speaking about Unlocking Sustainable Giving – How to Benefit Life and Business Through Philanthropy. His presentation will focus on the benefits that charitable giving can have for a company's bottom line, including increased customer loyalty, improved employee morale, and a positive brand reputation. He will also share practical strategies for incorporating philanthropy into a company's overall strategy, such as cause-related marketing, employee volunteer programs, and charitable donations.

"What truly distinguishes the Nonprofit Collective Foundation is our commitment to collective giving, stated Danette O'Connell, the organization's Founder and Executive Director. "We bring together donations, leveraging the combined funding of our generous donors to support a multitude of nonprofits, while equipping them with essential resources. Additionally, we offer our donors a user-friendly platform to facilitate the application process and efficiently manage their contributions, making a profound impact in the world of philanthropy."

At the conclusion of the event, there will be an opportunity for VIP networking from 12 – 4 p.m. To learn more about the fundraiser or to register, visit https://ncf-foundation.org/fundraiser.
