GlobalAutomation for Dynamics 365 Business Central Promises End-to-End Accounts Payable Automation for Business Central Users

Square 9 Softworks Reinforces Unwavering Commitment to Partners Amidst Launch of New Solution

New Haven, CT, October 10, 2023 – Square 9 Softworks, a leading AI-powered intelligent document processing solutions provider, has recently announced the launch of a new solution, GlobalAutomation for Dynamics 365 Business Central.

This unique Business Central integration aims to eliminate data entry by fueling Dynamics 365 with high value data extracted from invoices using artificial intelligence. It then puts that information in motion providing additional accounts payable automation and intelligent information management tools in a code-free, highly scalable environment.

Square 9's full, unwavering support to partners will be a key component to the solution's success as Square 9 delivers comprehensive training and product education at no cost to its resellers. As a ready-to-deploy solution that can be implemented in just a few days, GlobalAutomation enforces the company's never-fail policy with which Square 9 does everything in its power to guarantee customer satisfaction..

"Our partners are essential to the success of our solutions," says Square 9 President and CEO Steve Young. "That means that mutual collaboration, communication, and support need to be at the forefront of our business relationship."

With a uniquely powerful new solution and a channel of hundreds of satisfied resellers and national partners, Square 9 continues to be at the crossroads of next-level innovation and service. For more information visit,
