Square 9 to Launch New GlobalAutomation for Dynamics 365 Business Central Solution at Community Summit North America

GlobalAutomation for Dynamics 365 Business Central Provides End-to-End Accounts Payable Automation

New Haven, CT. October 12, 2023 – Square 9 Softworks, a leading AI-powered intelligent document processing solutions provider, recently announced that it will be attending the Community Summit North America with its latest solution offering, GlobalAutomation for Dynamics 365 Business Central.

GlobalAutomation for Dynamics 365 Business Central takes advantage of artificial intelligence, machine learning, and advanced capture technologies to capture documents and eliminate data entry into Business Central.

This no-code integration also provides additional automation not found in Business Central to streamline approval routing, manage invoice workflows, and provide company-wide access to invoice processes and audit histories for a complete document automation solution.

“GlobalAutomation for Business Central meets a unique need in the Dynamics 365 community,” Says Steve Young, Square 9 President and CEO. “It combines next-generation capture technology like AI and machine learning with intelligent information management to fully and completely automate accounts payable.”

With the release of GlobalAutomation for Business Central and a reminder of Square 9's partner dedication, The software company once again showcases how in tune it is with the needs of its community.
