Erin Buddie Promoted to Chief Human Resources Officer at Amerisure Insurance

Farmington Hills, Mich., November 15, 2023 — Amerisure is pleased to announce the promotion of Erin Buddie to Chief Human Resources Officer (CHRO).

In this role, Buddie will be responsible for further developing Amerisure’s human resources strategy and operations, including recruiting, talent management, training and development, total rewards, and HR systems. She also will continue leading the corporate services organization, comprised of purchasing, mail services, and facilities management.

“Erin’s promotion to CHRO recognizes her successful career at Amerisure as well as her value as an executive leader to the organization,” said Greg Crabb, Amerisure’s president and CEO. “Her position is central to our commitment to attract, retain and develop the exceptional employees responsible for delivering on our vision of being an industry-leading specialist, transforming the insurance experience one partnership at a time.”

Since joining Amerisure in 2014, Buddie has held roles of increasing responsibility, including senior HR consultant, manager of HR consulting and recruiting, director of HR operations, and assistant vice president of HR. Most recently, she served as the vice president of HR. Prior to joining Amerisure, Buddie held various leadership roles at Cintas Corporation.

Buddie earned her Bachelor of Science degree in biology and chemistry from Wayne State University.
