Health Plans, Inc. (HPI) Earns URAC Re-Accreditation in Health Utilization Management

The designation demonstrates a meaningful commitment to quality health care.

Westborough, MA, August 2024 – Health Plans, Inc. (HPI) is proud to announce that it has earned URAC re-accreditation for Health Utilization Management. URAC is the independent leader in promoting health care quality by setting high standards for clinical practice, consumer protections, performance measurement, operations infrastructure and risk management. By achieving this status, HPI has demonstrated its commitment to quality care, enhanced processes, patient safety and improved outcomes.

HPI is a forward-thinking, national third-party administrator of self-funded health plan solutions with over 40 years of experience. Their entrepreneurial spirit, flexible and innovative approach, and commitment to quality, technology, and personalized service enable them to deliver better value to clients and their employees.

“HPI is thrilled to have achieved URAC re-accreditation for our Utilization Management program,” said Dianne Oldach, vice president of care management services. “It was a collaborative effort by all, and we are proud to display the accreditation seal to signify that our program has been designated as a quality program by URAC.”

“Health care professionals know that utilization management is an important component to ensure that patients receive the most appropriate care for their particular needs. URAC’s Health Utilization Management Accreditation is a demonstration of excellence in reviewer qualifications, efficient timelines, appeals and drug utilization management. We are proud to recognize HPI for achieving URAC’s Health Utilization Management Accreditation,” said URAC’s President and CEO Shawn Griffin, MD.
