

Square 9 Unveils Its Next-Generation Intelligent Information Management Platform

GlobalSearch Go Provides The Tools, Speed, and Flexibility to Work Your Way

New Haven, CT. November 19, 2024 – Featuring lightning-fast loading times, an easy-to-navigate interface, and powerful new functionality, Square 9 Softworks, a leading provider of AI-powered intelligent information management (IIM) solutions, just unveiled its next-generation IIM platform. Building on the success of its award-winning predecessor, GlobalSearch Go offers a flexible IIM experience helping organizations work more efficiently by tailoring to their own unique work experience.

With multiple new options for securely sharing documents within or outside your organization and efficient new capabilities that allow you to favorite and refine searches, collaboration and information access have never been easier. And GlobalSearch Go's mobile-friendly interface delivers on these same promises, offering a highly effective way to manage information on the go.

“GlobalSearch Go is designed from the ground up to offer features, speed, and accessibility that are not possible with the technical limitations of previous IIM generations,” says Stephen Young, Square 9 President and CEO. “The result is a fresh experience that provides previously unseen levels of efficiency.”
