PARIS - With a strategic growth plan and bold vision to bring its world-leading hospitality brands to new and established markets, Accor today unveiled a dynamic array of new destinations, hotels, resorts, and compelling hospitality offerings set to open throughout 2026. Encompassing more than 45 brands, Accor plans to debut around 350 new addresses over the next 12 months. From the vibrant nightlife of Miami and the buzzing streets of Shanghai to the coffee capital of Melbourne and the canals of Venice, 2026 is set to be an unforgettable year for Accor's internationally renowned brands. For discerning travelers seeking unparalleled journeys, the legendary Orient Express will extend its legacy to the open sea, with the launch of the world's largest sailing yacht, Orient Express Corinthian. Keep reading to discover the new destinations that Accor has in store.

LUXURY

One hundred and forty years after unveiling its first luxury trains, the legendary Orient Express embarks on an unprecedented new chapter: the magnificent debut of Orient Express Corinthian. This extraordinary vessel will make her maiden voyage across the Mediterranean in June 2026, sailing between Marseille, Corsica and Liguria. In October 2026, Orient Express Corinthian will embark on its Caribbean season, setting sail on a transatlantic 14-night journey from Lisbon to Barbados. Architect and Creative Director, Maxime d'Angeac, has conceived the interiors for Orient Express Sailing Yachts, calling upon the finest French artisans. Onboard, every detail tells a story, with an intimate collection of 54 suites as well as five restaurants and private dining spaces helmed by multi-Michelin-starred Chef Yannick Alléno. Voyages begin in June 2026.

On land, an eight-year renovation of a 15th-century Venetian palace will culminate in the debut of Orient Express Venezia at Palazzo Donà Giovannelli. Once home to the Duke of Urbino and the Donà and Giovannelli families, this historical address begins a new hospitality chapter, honoring the legacy of a noble mansion while embracing the spirit of the iconic brand. The hotel will offer 47 guestrooms, suites, and salons. Opening April 2026.

Raffles Jeddah will represent the authentic heart of its destination, overlooking the corniche with uninterrupted views of the Red Sea. Featuring 142 guest rooms and 40 suites, the hotel will be home to three distinctive restaurants and lounges in addition to a luxurious spa and generous gathering spaces that include a 1,292 square meter grand ballroom. Adjacent to the hotel in a private tower stretched across 48 floors will stand Raffles Residences Jeddah, providing residents with breathtaking views, captivating interiors and movable mashrabiya screens. Residents will enjoy their own palatial private lobby and on-site amenities including a private residents' club, swimming pools, and platforms for meditation and yoga. The two Raffles towers will showcase local art and decorative craftsmanship that speaks to the Kingdom's storied past and ambitious future. Opening early 2026.

Raffles The Red Sea will offer 121 guestrooms and 14 suites, along with 33 villas. Situated on Shura Island, the resort will introduce five distinctive culinary venues, a signature Raffles Spa, and interiors inspired by the natural riches of the sea and shore. Guests will experience the legendary Raffles Butler Service, complemented by thoughtfully curated cultural and wellness programming that celebrates the destination's unique heritage. Opening mid 2026.

Alongside the Raffles, Fairmont The Red Sea is set to redefine the relationship between luxury tourism and the natural world. The property will feature 193 rooms, six distinct dining concepts, including an overwater restaurant with views of the Red Sea, and a spa. The resort will be situated next to an 18-hole championship golf course, reflecting Fairmont's reputation as a world-class golf operator. It will set new standards in sustainable development, positioned on 125 miles of untouched coastline, an archipelago of more than 90 unspoiled islands, dormant volcanoes, rich marine habitat, and ancient archaeological sites. Opening May 2026.

Fairmont Hanoi, draws inspiration from Vietnam's traditional colors and intricate lacquer craft, blending Indochinese motifs with French colonial influences for an enchanting peek into the city's fascinating history. Here, guests are treated to an urban resort of 241 luxurious rooms, with six dining and bar venues, including a rooftop restaurant, spa, fitness center, a bathhouse, and two swimming pools. Opening early 2026.

Fairmont New Orleans will open in the city's Central Business District, near the historic French Quarter. Housed within the former Bank of New Orleans building, the hotel will offer 250 guestrooms and suites, as well as a restaurant, lobby lounge and rooftop bar. A swimming pool will feature expansive views of the city, while a 10,000 square foot spa is set to become a wellness destination not to be missed. Opening June 2026.

Fairmont Dalian has been carefully restored, bringing the property up to Fairmont's global standards of modern luxury hospitality, with a commitment to sustainability that matches the city's progressive values. The elegant four-story heritage building and luxury hotel will offer 70 guestrooms, the brand's exclusive hotel-within-a-hotel experience Fairmont Gold, a stunning ballroom for weddings and private events, numerous meeting rooms, signature restaurants, a swimming pool and fitness center. Opening mid 2026.

Following a comprehensive restoration, redesign, and expansion, Fairmont Cheshire, The Mere will open just outside of the highly desirable town of Knutsford, Cheshire in the UK and overlooking The Mere Lake. Housed on a historic 157-acre estate, the hotel will offer 116 bedrooms, including 27 suites, alongside an 18-hole championship golf course and some of the finest wellness and culinary offerings in the county. The estate, with origins tracing back to The Domesday Book in 1086, features a 'New Hall' built in 1834. Opening late 2026.

Sofitel Riyadh Hotel & Convention Centre will open in the heart of the city, blending French luxury with Saudi heritage. The 388-room hotel features elegant design inspired by the Arabian desert and French countryside, creating a unique cultural dialogue. It houses Riyadh's largest luxury convention center and largest convention center in the Sofitel hotel network, offering world-class facilities for up to 3,000 guests. Guests can enjoy diverse dining experiences, a serene spa, and signature Sofitel rituals celebrating art de vivre. Opening early 2026.

Rimrock Banff, Emblems Collection debuting in the majestic Canadian Rockies, will be the first Emblems Collection address in North America, following a full renovation that is set to redefine mountain luxury. Offering a discreet and refined sanctuary where culture, wellness, and adventure converge, the revitalized resort will introduce captivating new elements including a breathtaking mountainside infinity pool with sweeping views of the Bow Valley, vitality pools, ice immersion bathing, and panoramic saunas. From its serene connection to the region's natural hot springs to experiences that celebrate Banff's alpine spirit and breathtaking vistas, the retreat will invite guests to discover a sense of place both elevated and elemental. Opening mid 2026.

Masseria Furnirussi, Emblems Collection, debuting in the heart of Puglia, set within the largest fig orchard in Europe, will embrace the art of pure, unhurried living and offer an authentic celebration of Mediterranean craftsmanship and lifestyle. The Masseria reimagines traditional Salento architecture in local white stone, surrounded by a garden of fruit trees, herbs, and native botanicals, alongside a lagoon pool and a spa featuring The Purist Retreat & Spa concept. The hotel will provide 60 suites, featuring private pools and terraces. Opening mid 2026.

Formerly the Mirihi Island Resort, the property is set to reopen as V Villas Maldives at Mirihi – MGallery Collection following an extensive renovation and expansion led by award-winning Studio Gronda. The boutique resort will offer 42 luxurious villas — from beach and overwater villas to expansive multi-bedroom suites with private pools all designed to immerse guests in the beauty of the Indian Ocean while reflecting MGallery's signature intimacy and character. Rooted in Maldivian heritage and inspired by the delicate Mirihi flower, the resort embodies the art of quiet luxury, offering a serene retreat shaped by ocean rhythms. Surrounded by vibrant reefs and a tranquil protected lagoon, the resort will harmonize with the natural environment to create an atmosphere of elegance, simplicity, and effortless comfort. Opening January 2026.

Perched on the hilltops of Surin Beach, Navera Phuket, MGallery Collection gazes over glittering, cerulean waters of the Andaman Sea at one of Phuket's most desirable locations. Navera Phuket transcends the ordinary with its 19 individual-styled villas, each designed to provide guests with an intimate and personalized retreat that blends contemporary Thai culture with unexpected charm. The hotel speaks in a sophisticated design language inspired by maritime themes, enriched with touches of storied Sino-Portuguese heritage. Opening early 2026.

Set where Kamala's emerald hills meet the sparkling Andaman Sea, MontAzure Phuket, MGallery Collection offers a rare sanctuary between the energy of the coastline and the stillness of the hills. Located within the vibrant Kamala's MontAzure community, a curated enclave of lifestyle, entertainment, and lush nature, the 150-room resort offers seamless access to Phuket's most dynamic experiences, while preserving a sense of tranquility. Rooted in contemporary design and framed by its signature lagoon, the resort moves to the quiet rhythm of nature. Opening early 2026.

MGallery in Jilin Beida Lake is set to offer a unique blend of luxury and nature at the prestigious Jilin Beida Lake Ski Resort, located in the heart of Northeast China and recognized as one of Asia Pacific's premier ski destinations. The elegant hotel will feature 193 guest rooms, a spa, an indoor swimming pool, restaurant, bar, meeting rooms, and executive lounge. Surrounded by breathtaking landscapes, MGallery will provide a four-season experience, allowing visitors to enjoy skiing in winter, vibrant lotus flowers in summer, and relaxing hot springs year-round. Opening early 2026.

Located off the west coast of France, Le Bel Hôtel Oléron – MGallery Collection will feature 102 rooms, including eight suites, all offering views of the surrounding pine forest or the ocean. Set within a protected Natura 2000 site between the Saint-Trojan national forest and Gatseau beach, the hotel blends natural materials, soft woods, and sandy, mineral tones inspired by the seaside houses of Oléron and the Hamptons. The property will offer a culinary identity crafted by Michelin-starred chef Pierre Gagnaire, a main restaurant with a terrace, an intimate table d'hôte, two bars, and beach service. A revitalized marine spa and thalassotherapy center, along with outdoor wellness experiences, will immerse guests in the island's serene natural beauty. Opening April 2026.

Lime Resort Myoko – MGallery Collection will open at the base of Mt. Myoko, renowned for Japan's heaviest snowfall and home to one of the country's longest ski runs. The existing property will be transformed into a modern wellness-focused resort, with 38 guestrooms, restaurants, a lounge café & bar, onsen facilities, fitness area, and kids club. Opening late 2026.

LIFESTYLE (ENNISMORE)

The opening of Delano Miami Beach heralds a bold new chapter for the iconic landmark. A reimagined experience celebrating the city's vibrant spirit will unfold across 171 guestrooms and suites, inclusive of coveted poolside bungalows and signature penthouses. The hotel also offers innovative wellness, curated retail, and four standout restaurant and bar concepts curated by Ennismore's F&B Platform, including the return of the legendary Rose Bar. Opening early 2026.

Nestled on the private island of Kuredhivaru, Mondrian Maldives will bring the brand's signature blend of striking, sculptural design and future-forward perspective to a paradisaal setting in the undisturbed Noonu Atoll. The 105-room resort will feature overwater and beachfront villas, including spectacular three-bedroom beach pool residences, as well as world-class dining, a luxury spa, and immersive cultural experiences, set just a 45-minute seaplane journey from Malé. Opening early 2026.

Asia's first Rixos all-inclusive resort, Rixos Phu Quoc Vietnam, is set on Vietnam's scenic Hon Thom Island. The beachfront retreat will feature over 1,700 ocean-view rooms, 22 dining venues, and extensive wellness and leisure facilities, including Rixy Kids and Teens Clubs, water sports, botanical gardens, and a theatre. Blending Turkish-inspired hospitality with Vietnamese culture, this family-friendly resort will redefine the all-inclusive experience in Southeast Asia, easily accessible via the world's longest overseas cable car. Opening mid 2026.

Hyde continues to grow its global footprint with Hyde Mexico City Reforma set to open its doors in a revered location on the iconic Paseo de la Reforma Avenue. Bringing Hyde's bohemian spirit and distinctive energy to Mexico City's main cultural and business corridor, the hotel will have 106 rooms, Niko, a classic and understated Japanese restaurant that focuses on premium-quality ingredients and traditional presentation, and Sun & Moon cocktail bar, gym, and meeting rooms. Opening early 2026.

Luura, a new family-owned brand, will join Morgans Originals, a celebrated collection of one-of-a-kind, independent hotels known for their iconic cultural stories. Situated on the island of Paros, Luura represents a bold new chapter in contemporary Greek hospitality. The opening will also mark Ennismore's debut in Greece, bringing the collective's distinctive approach to lifestyle hospitality to the Aegean. Opening early 2026.

Located in the heart of Como, Mama Shelter Lake Como is a lively retreat blending Mama's playful energy with music, design, and relaxation. Spread across two new buildings, it features 150 rooms, including 21 suites, and four restaurants and bars, including a rooftop bar, Café Gelato, and a poolside restaurant. Guests can also enjoy a rooftop pool, a wellness area, meeting spaces, and private karaoke rooms, making it a joyful destination for all generations. Opening early 2026.
