■ Bring your team together with associate and group membership—available to end-user and provider organizations with fees as low as $229 each

A divide-and-conquer strategy really works! Imagine assigning research to one associate and eNetworking outreach to another—with a team of card and payment professionals accessing resources, you can make real progress in no time. Visit iocpnw.com/membertypes for details.

■ Can't join yet? Subscribe and receive a higher level of website access

If you can't become a member just yet, become a complimentary subscriber so you can:

- sign in and register for events, access to select resources and use the Career Center
- receive industry news and event notifications, including invitations to participate in webinars, industry surveys and quick online polls
- download a complimentary copy of the annual Provider Directory of product and service providers

■ Job change? Displaced? We have options for transferring your membership

Access to member resources is exclusive to the designated, individual member; membership cannot be shared. If a member leaves the organization or changes job roles, Institute of Commercial Payments can reassign the membership. Individuals who become unemployed while a current membership receive a 12-month, complimentary membership.

■ Professional certification demonstrates expertise. Earn your Certified

Purchasing Card Professional (CPCP) credential (iocpnw.com/cpcp) Members and non-members, end-users and providers can gain recognition for mastering the body of knowledge required to manage all aspects of a P-Card program. Online forms and procedures make it easy to identify eligibility points. Testing is conducted in a virtual environment.
