

3 DECADES OF INCREDIBLE ACHIEVEMENTS & LIFESAVING RESULTS

1988

Bruce Cleland launches the first endurance sports charity program at the New York City Marathon

1990

First FDA approvals for targeted blood cancer drugs

1993

Team In Training spreads nationwide to 20 chapters

2001

Team In Training launches first virtual training program

2007

340,000 teammates raise more than $800 million

2010

Teammate fundraising drives groundbreaking immunotherapies

2015

600,000 teammates raise $1 billion

1996

Team In Training teammates raise more than $16 million, and Dr Druker pioneers lifesaving clinical trial

1997

Team In Training launches first cycling training program in concert with the new Information Resource Center for patients

1999

Team In Training launches first triathlon training program

2016

LLS launches groundbreaking Beat AML Master Trial

2017

FDA approves first new AML treatments in 40 years, and Team In Training launches climb program and summits Mt. Kilimanjaro

A NEW ERA IN TEAM

As we start our 30th year, Team In Training is now the largest charity endurance training program in the world – powered by 650,000 athletes who have raised over $1 billion.

From our storied past, a new era is born – building on strength and courage, inspired by community and innovation. We are united by one goal – a world without blood cancers.

