

Surplus Investment Framework

$130M

Contingency operating reserve: $40M

Strategic investments $90M

Strengthening safeguards for producers

Enhancements to grain sample assessment services for producers

Facilitate producers' marketing decisions by providing additional analytical testing results through the Harvest Sample Program

Enhancements to producer protections and grain quality assurance

Ensure producers are fairly compensated and that grain quality is upheld through improved compliance and enforcement resources

Investing in grain quality assurance

Real-time analytical testing at key locations in the grain handling system

Support the grain sector through providing more timely, improved, and enhanced analytical services

E-services and information management

Modernize and e-enable the CGC's client service and information management systems to deliver services faster and more effectively

Enhancing grain quality science and innovation

Grain quality science and innovation

Support grain sector innovation through modernizing and investing in laboratory equipment and capacity

New testing methods for grain quality and safety

Support the grain sector and enhance market access efforts by developing new and innovative testing methods

Canadian Grain
Commission

Commission canadienne
des grains

Canada