Colombes, 22 January 2019 – Altares Group, the company data experts, has announced Luc Querton’s appointment as CEO as of 4th January 2019. He thus joins Altares at a time when the group, supported by its shareholder Naxicap, is turning into a major player in technological solutions for enriching data. Eric Aveillan of Naxicap said: “Under Luc Querton’s leadership, Altares will considerably boost its technological innovations to keep pace with changes in its legacy markets and roll out new offers for new segments and geographies.” Luc Querton will bring Altares his experience in developing and integrating technology companies. “Altares’s human capital and innovation potential are fantastic development drivers. I’m thrilled to be serving our staff, our prestigious clients and our longstanding partners, including Dun & Bradstreet,” he said.

Luc Querton, 48, a Belgian national who has lived in France for twenty years, has a background in new technologies, more specifically in the financial services sector over the past fifteen years. He has had a successful career with IBM, Business Objects/SAP, Unisys, NetEconomy/Fiserv, and most recently Fircosoft (a RELX company), where he served as CEO before joining Altares Group.
