

CANADIAN HOT DOG ETIQUETTE

Hot dogs are the ultimate fun and casual food, but it's important to follow some simple etiquette rules to enjoy them stress-free. After all, isn't that what life is all about in laid-back Canada? Here's what you need to know.

PLATES AREN'T NECESSARY. EVEN PAPER ONES.

Hot dogs are the ultimate handheld food. Plus, eating with your hands is the ultimate environmentally friendly way to go. So, feel free to ditch the dishes and shun the paper plates.

DON'T FRET ABOUT INGREDIENTS. INSTEAD, RELAX AND ENJOY.

Focus on hot dog deliciousness and know that Maple Leaf Natural Top Dogs™ are made with natural ingredients that are so simple and understandable, no guilt is necessary.

EATING HOT DOGS WITH MITTENS AND GLOVES ON IS ACCEPTABLE IN CANADA.

Never let the cold prevent you from enjoying a hot dog while ice fishing, snowshoeing, skiing, snowmobiling or skating! And goalies should never remove gloves while eating hot dogs during a game – it's too risky to the knuckles.

FUN FACT

MORE HOT DOGS WERE PURCHASED AT RETAIL IN ONTARIO THAN ANY OTHER PROVINCE LAST YEAR – 13,201,401KG TO BE EXACT* LAID END TO END THAT WOULD BE THE EQUIVALENT OF 81,668 CN TOWERS STACKED ON TOP OF EACH OTHER.

DON'T BE DELICATE WHEN EATING HOT DOGS. DEVOUR!

Canadians should never feel they need to eat slowly or feign fullness when enjoying a sacred wiener. Five to six bites is the recommended limit for a regular dog, while eight to 10 is acceptable for a jumbo dog at the ballpark.

KEEP THE BEVERAGE PAIRING CASUAL WITH HOT DOGS.

Pairing a fancy drink with a hot dog is like wearing an evening gown to a baseball game. Keep it simple.

THANK YOU NOTES AFTER A MEAL THAT INCLUDES HOT DOGS ARE NOT NEEDED IN CASUAL CANADA.

A simple text is nice, but not necessary or expected.

Hot dogs are sacred in Canada and the name stands with or without the presence of bread. But a sandwich without the bread is just – well, ingredients.

GRAVY AND CHEESE CURDS ARE ACCEPTABLE TOPPINGS.

While many people outside of Canada may be puzzled, no explanation is needed here in Canada. Hold your head high and just hum "O Canada" in your head when challenged.

DO USE KETCHUP NORTH OF THE BORDER.

While many Americans shun ketchup on hot dogs, reaching for ketchup is as natural a reflex for Canadians as gripping on a hockey stick. It's permitted within Canadian borders for hot dog lovers at any age.

NEVER, EVER FEED A MOOSE A HOT DOG.

It's a waste of good food. And if the risks aren't immediately apparent, you aren't a real Canadian.
